1800 CENSUS GREENVILLE DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA
Compared with the 1790-1810-1820 Census with some additional information.
Compiled by Peggy B. Chapman, September, 1998

I have a copy of South Carolina 1800 Census published 1973 by Accelerated Indexing Systems, Provo, Utah. I began to read this census in 1991 to determine neighbors of the Cockrums and noted that AIS read Chesley Cockrum as Chuley Cockrum. Chesley had migrated from Wilkes Co., NC and when I examined 1782 Wilkes County, North Carolina Tax List, published by The Genealogical Society of the "Original" Wilkes County, (196_), I noted many families found in Greenville, Pendleton and Laurens Districts seemed to have migrated from Wilkes Co. i.e.

Anderson, Baker, Barton, Chandlor, Cleveland, Cocrum [Cockerham], Coffee, Couch, Crane, Crisp, Denman, Dobbs, Duncan, Dier, Edwards, Ellege, Griffin, Hall,
Henderson, Hooper, Isbell, Jennings, Jordan, Keese, Kerby, Merritt, Montgomery, Morris, Norman, Pinion [Pinnell], Pinson, Poor, Upchurch, Reese, Reynolds, Roberts, Robins, Russell, Rice, Summerlin, Sutherlin, Sawyer, Sparks, Sloan, Stepp, Turner, Toney, West & Yeargin. My ancestors Pendleton Isbell, Elijah Keese and Thomas Henderson were from Wilkes County thence to Pendleton and Laurens Districts. Chesley Cockrum/Cockerham's brother William, who married Thomas Henderson's daughter, may have moved to Greenville District.

By 1800 many Greenville District families had left the area, some apparently to Pendleton, Laurens, Spartanburg and Union Districts. A number of families from Greenville District and surrounding counties migrated to Christian County, Kentucky and appeared in the court order books, deed books and the tax rolls. Early taxpayers included William Prince, William Gillihan, Bartholomew Wood, James Dillingham, John Dillingham (1797), Samuel Earl, Peter Hammond, William Story, John Story, Michael Dillingham, Henry Wolfe, Sr., Henry Wolfe, Jr. (1798), Alexander Armstrong, William Armstrong, John Pyle, Nicholas Pyle, Stephen Sullivant, Vachal Dillingham, Sr., Vachal Dillingham, Jr., John Ware, David Black and Thomas Black (1799). After the 1800 census the migration included Baylis Earl (1801), Hans Black (1803), Edward Stringer, George Marchbanks (1804), Lewis Wells, Henry M. Wood (1805), Frederick Farmer, Elijah Brasher, Thomas Brasher (1806), Frederick Croft, Aquilla Brasher, John Brasher, Joseph Woolbanks (1808), Lawrence Brasher, Lewis Wells, Sr. (1809), Benjamin, James and Matthew Armstrong (by 1810). Jesse Sparks' four children, John, Isabella, Elsa and Polly, migrated to Christian County by 1820. Thomas Arnold of Greenville District was in Logan County, KY by Jul 1810. Appearing in other neighboring counties of Christian were Absolem Johnston (Livingston County 1806), William Gilliland, Clayborn Sullivant, John McElroy, Solomon K. Chandler and Zacheriah Chandler (Caldwell County 1809). Mary Sherrell Casey, daughter of Phillip Sherrell, was in Caldwell County by 19 Dec 1814. Hugh McVey was in Livingston/Caldwell Counties by 16 Sep 1814.

It may be a coincidence but many other familiar names of Greenville appeared in Christian and Caldwell Counties, KY i.e. Alston, Bell, Birdsong, Buckaloo, Cornelius, Crabtree, Crisp, Duff, Easley, French, Gill, Grace, Grayham, Hall, Harrison, Henson, Holland, Hooper, Huggins, Jennings, Langston, Logan, Machen, Maxwell, McJunkin, Pennington, Philpot, Sloan, Steele, Terry, Turner and Waldrop.

In some cases the 1800 census had two men by the same name and in the 1790 census only one man by that name appeared; with no way to distinguish the difference, i.e. Samuel Walker appeared in 1790 census and in 1800 Samuel Walker appeared (#707 age 45 up) and another Samuel Walker appeared (#1499 age 45 up). Several men appeared in land records between 1788 and 1800 that did not appear on the 1790 or 1800 census.

The comparisons to census and land locations were made as point of reference to establish neighbors of the Cockrums. I am sure some comparisons and may be in error. This work is a guide line for research in Greenville District.
